No Paper To-Morrow.

This being Thanksgiving day, one of the National holidays, universally observed by us, in order to give the printers an opportunity to return thanks, no paper will issue from this office to-morrow morning.

PERCULITIES.

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. Thanksgiving day.

Let's all suspend operations and devote the day to giving thanks.

The postoffice is going hunting to-day. Our order is in for a supply of game.

The Gazette reports hogs selling at 3 to 3 1/2 cents gross in the Morristown market.

A general assault will be made on "turkey" to-day all along the line. It will be war to the knife.

Chattanooga's new board of city fathers was inaugurated with appropriate ceremonies Monday night.

There are now confined in the penitentiary at Nashville 642 convicts, nearly two to each cell, says the American.

It's warm again, regular summer weather. Such days as yesterday makes a fellow squirm under his heavy winter flannels.

It was a full and lively market yesterday, making preparations for the Thanksgiving dinner. There will be no market in the market house this morning.

Oliver Doud Byron and his "Across the Continent" combination and W. F. Cody's "Buffalo Bill" are the features of Nashville amusement circles this week.

According to the Times, the total floating debt of Chattanooga, as shown by the report of the retiring Mayor, is $122,987.35, which is a reduction of $4,493.55 in a period of six years.

Mayor Mitchell, of Morristown, issued a proclamation, recommending the observance of this day as a day of thanksgiving, prayer, etc., in that town. This is more than Knoxville did.

The Harry Helms has again changed hands, as we see from the Chattanooga Times. Capt. Alexander, former owner of the May Bell, has purchased her from the Allison Brothers, and she will ply between Chattanooga and Hiwassee. Chattanooga has seven steamboats which make headquarters there.

The Cincinnati Southern Railway has located depot grounds in Chattanooga, on the old Stanton depot grounds, and temporary accommodations are to be provided at once, says the Times. A gap of about eight miles yet remains to be completed. The last spike is to be of solid silver, and will be furnished by a Cincinnati jeweler.

Sheriff Reader has had the dungeon in the jail from which the prisoners made their escape recently, thoroughly repaired and put in order. The hole around the sewer pipes, which was dug out by the escaping prisoners has been well packed in with cement and brick, and covered over the top with strong boiler iron, so as to make it perfectly secure.

Asheville (N. C.) Journal: As we go to press, we are informed that Louis Barker, col., of Sullivan county, Tennessee, has been arrested in this city by Messrs. Reynolds and Featherstone, as answering the description of the man who murdered Sheriff Worley, of the same county, on the 6th inst. He has been committed to jail here awaiting more definite information by telegraph from Union, Tennessee.

Open Doors.

We will keep our store doors open until 10 o'clock to-day.

SHOEMAKER & CALDWELL.

The Housekeeper's Responsibility.

How many suffer from dyspepsia and other ills by the neglect of the housekeeper to see that the food provided is made from articles that are injurious to health. Among the articles which are perfectly pure and wholesome, is Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. Encourage its sale by a liberal patronage.

Damages for Dogging Hogs.

Justice Allison's court was engaged most of yesterday afternoon in the trial of a damage suit of some interest, in which there was a number of witnesses examined. The case was that of Jas. A. Compton against Ben Davis, claiming damages for injuries done to the plaintiff's hogs, by defendant's dogs. The evidence was conflicting in some respects, but Mr. Compton was awarded damage to the amount of $5 and costs.

Personal.

Prof. R. D'S. Robertson, Principal and Superintendent of the Knoxville Public Schools, left last night for a tour through Northern and Eastern cities and States, for the purpose of making observations of the educational work of those sections, and deriving practical lessons therefrom for use in his professional duties. He will be gone till the Christmas holidays. We wish him a pleasant and profitable journey.

Mr. Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the Chattanooga Times, was in the city yesterday, circulating among his many Knoxville friends.

Mr. W. T. Mann and his newly wedded wife, nee Miss Mamie Oldham, have returned to the city from a pleasant bridal tour, and taken rooms at the Atkin House, which will be their home.

Capt. J. C. Duff, of Bradley county, a Deputy United States Marshal, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. J. C. Miller, Secretary of the Western Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Holston Synod, arrived yesterday evening, visiting his friends in the city. He has accepted a call to a church and the principalship of a college in Monroe county, and will shortly remove thither.

McNULTY & GEORGE'S.

From Yesterday's Second Edition.

And Now Billy Honnihan's Goe.

Who would a' thought it? We mean that our jovial Irish friend, Billy Honnihan, the painter, should be swept in with the matrimonial boom which struck Knoxville broadside some days ago, but such is the case. Last night, at the Catholic Church, Rev. Father Marron officiating, was celebrated the nuptial ceremony in which Mr. Wm. Honnihan and Miss Bridget Burns were made man and wife, and they were as happy a bridal couple as happy could be. Mr. John Gantner and Miss Crawley were the attendants.

The Church was crowded, and the ceremony was witnessed with peculiar interest. Billy stood the racket first rate—that is to say considering. If he did exhibit some signs of embarrassment, that will all be looked over when it is known that this was his first time, and the proceedings were entirely new to him; in fact he was young and inexperienced—at least inexperienced—in such undertakings.

Billy has stood the test for these many years, but finally succumbed to the charms of the fairer sex—and he it said to his credit, that he did—and has deserted his "old back" headquarters on the Square, where he will be missed. But all his numerous friends will join in his hearty congratulating him on his happy conquest, and wishing him and his charming bride all the joy imaginable, and that all their troubles, if at all, may be very small ones indeed.

Now, who'll be the next, while the waters are troubled.

A Benefactor.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Sisy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking and teething stage. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhea. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

The Best way to cheer up, if you are a dependent invalid, is to grow stronger. This you can do if you take a piece of advice which has the weight of big medical authority to back it. That is to use the standard invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, specially commended and endorsed by physicians. Among the bodily troubles which it overcomes are dyspepsia, irregularity of the bowels, liver complaint, general debility and nervous complaints. It is also found very useful in counteracting a tendency to weakness or disorder of the kidneys and bladder, and persons troubled with rheumatism strongly endorse it as a remedy. Its influence upon the entire system is highly beneficial, promoting as it does the return of sleep, and appetite, and the acquisition of flesh and strength. A silent reproach of the folly of nervous drug medication is conveyed in the success of this pleasant and effective botanical medicine.
